Yellowstone Activities For Kids This is the second year the park has hosted the Wildlife Olympics, which features 12 fun activities for kids and their families to participate in with a park ranger and learn about Yellowstone's wildlife. Activities include leaping like a snowshoe hare, jumping like a mountain lion, holding one's breath like a beaver, not blinking like an owl, and standing on one leg like a great blue heron. A handful of facts are learned by kids of all ages at the Yellowstone Junior Ranger Wildlife Olympics, being held throughout the summer season at Mammoth Hot Springs, Canyon and Old Faithful Visitor Education Centers. The 20 scheduled events began June 7 and will run from noon to 3 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays at alternating locations through August 12. Check the park newspaper for scheduled event times and locations, or call the Albright Visitor Center at (307) 344-2263.

HISTORY NOTES & QUOTES

OLD CORRAL: Ride um cowboy! The lucky tourists in the 1940's enjoyed this authentic small time rodeo in Cooke City.

The famous Linderman family provided the bucking horses and did most of the bronco riding. All greenhorn riders were welcome to take to the saddle only to bite the dust! Made a lot of the locals smile!
